

HUNT FOR PLOTTERS SHOWS PROGRESS

Chief Flynn Predicts Definite Action in Bomb Cases Soon.

FIREMEN JOIN SEARCH

City Being Combed for Hidden Stocks of Explosives and Plan Will Be Extended.

Distinct progress has been made in the hunt for the anarchists who exploded ten bombs in eight cities a week ago last night. William J. Flynn, head of the Department of Justice's investigators and in general charge of the hunt, made this statement yesterday after a conference with William M. O'Keefe, head of the local office, George E. Kelleher, head of the Boston bureau and a number of operatives.

"We have made excellent progress," Mr. Flynn said as he left the department's offices in the Park Row Building. "We are better off to-day than we were yesterday. There may be some definite action very soon."

In reply to a question he stated that the new developments which encouraged him were the result of work on the Washington explosion before the home of Attorney-General Palmer. He said that he did not know whether or not this meant that further steps had been taken toward the identification of the anarchist who was blown to pieces by his own internal machine there.

Both Chief Flynn and Mr. O'Keefe denied that there had been any new developments toward the identification of the man who placed the bomb in the doorway of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., in East Sixty-first street here.

Firemen Take a Hand.
It was also learned yesterday that the services of the Fire Department have been requisitioned in the bomb hunt. Commissioner Drennan has ordered that a minute inspection of all barns, lofts and other places, especially in the foreign quarters, be made. Its real object is to learn of the presence of any stores of explosives or of material for making explosives or of any machines or material for machines of a dangerous character.

The firemen will start their hunt systematically in each district in all the boroughs this week. In some respects they have broader powers in the course of their inspections than have the police for entry into and observation of suspicious property, and the other agencies engaged in the hunt are welcoming this step. It is stated that the plan will be extended to other cities.

Chief Flynn had intended to go to Philadelphia yesterday to look at the shell found in the subway there. Information was received in the morning, however, that the shell was what the soldiers call a "dud," one that does not explode. It has been sent to the Frankfort Arsenal at Philadelphia for inspection and analysis. Chief Flynn indicated that he would make his headquarters in New York. This does not mean that he believes that New York is the home of all the bomb plotters, but he does believe that the most important connections here and that here he will be nearer the center of the problem than he would be in Philadelphia.

The local office of the Department of Justice is being deluged with letters containing tips on the bomb outbreaks. Some of them allude to addresses found to be vacant lots, but all are being carefully run down. Even those letters which are palpably false clues are not considered wholly useless, as it may be that they are sent by those interested in the explosion as an effort to take up the time of the Department with useless work. Every effort is made in each instance to locate and question the sender. Despite the extra work the Department welcomes these letters.

Gov. Smith came to New York yesterday and among his other engagements he included a conference with Senator Charles D. Newton, in which the committee investigating radical propaganda.

Woman Radical Ejected.
In addition to the large force of uniformed police an effort was made to keep the time of the Department with useless work. Every effort is made in each instance to locate and question the sender. Despite the extra work the Department welcomes these letters.

The young lady's brain food was a small pamphlet which she sold at 10 cents a copy. It was entitled "The Crimes of Bolshevism." This, the young lady and her co-workers admitted, was a bit of camouflage.

The volume contained a series of pictures with text explaining how the Bolsheviks had routed the Russian army, as rich ladies commanding their maids to bring them cigarettes, child labor, over driven factory people, and gentlemen in rich fur coats, who in the bad old days could order their valets to scratch their backs in their bath tubs. The crimes of the Bolsheviks were humorously described as the eradication of the rich lady, the emancipation of the maid, who under Bolshevik had the proud privilege of "kissing" her one time mistress, the ejection of the bosses from the factories and placing the gentleman in the fur coat in the horrible dilemma of having either to hang or hoe. Nothing was said about what the Bolsheviks would do to the bath tub.

BOMB IS FOUND AT FRANKFORD ARSENAL
Carefully Packed to Avoid Explosion by Concussion.

Special Despatch to The Sun.
PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—An exploded bomb was found early this morning at the Frankfort Arsenal. Although crude made and was carefully packed with a container, evidently to prevent explosion by concussion. A fuse eight or nine inches long was attached to it.

Experts who examined the bomb said that it contained certain high explosives in it of a size sufficient to blow up a good sized building. Complete analysis of its composition will be made tomorrow morning by Government chemists.

Discovery of the bomb was made by an unidentified man, who gave it to Capt. P. W. Hollingsworth and Sergeant H. L. Pratt, both of whom are members of the Frankfort Home Defense Re-

HOUSING INQUIRY MERGER IS SOUGHT

Mayor's Committee Asks Right to Question Legislative Witnesses.

MONEY MEN TO TESTIFY

Insurance and Building Material Representatives Will Be Examined.

The Lockwood Legislative Committee on Housing has been asked by the Mayor's Committee on Rent Protesting to permit the joint committee of the Mayor's Committee and the Aldermanic Committee on General Welfare through counsel to cross-examine officers of life insurance companies and building material supply men who testify before the legislative committee.

The Lockwood committee has subpoenaed representatives of insurance companies and savings banks to appear before it at the resumption of its inquiry to-day. These witnesses include Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and E. W. F. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company.

The request was granted, Frank Moss, who is to conduct examinations in the investigation suggested by Samuel Untermyer, will get to work on once Senator Charles C. Lockwood, chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee, went out of town for the week-end and will not get back until the morning of the 11th. Therefore, nobody was able to find out just exactly how he felt about it.

No Objection to Questioning.
The proposition was put up to the Mayor's Committee by vice-chairman of the Lockwood committee, at his home in Lawrence, L. I., and he said he had no doubt the plan would have the approval of the Mayor's Committee.

"We wish the fullest possible inquiry," Mr. McWhinney said. "If I have anything to say about it, any of the Mayor's Committee, wishes to have asked, certainly will be asked of our witnesses by his counsel."

Mr. McWhinney expressed the hope that such cross-examination would be reasonably brief, as the legislative committee desires to take up the too questions as possible. The committee was appointed to investigate the conditions as well as the housing problem.

In a recent letter to Samuel Untermyer, Chairman Lockwood, informed of the appearance to-day before the Joint Legislative Committee of the Mayor's Committee, Mr. Peabody and Mr. Kingsley and added:

"You are invited to these meetings and all subsequent ones, and if you are unable to attend, we would be glad to have you send a representative or you cannot do that, a list of questions which you desire put to these witnesses."

Much interest will be attached to the injection of the city investigators into the State inquiry for the reason that the Lockwood Committee is a Republican body—created by a Republican Legislature and composed of more Republicans than Democratic Senators and Assemblymen—whereas the influences in and about the Mayor's and the Aldermanic committees are exclusively Democratic. And they do say that each group of investigators is more than slightly suspicious that the other fellows would stop to play politics if they get half a chance.

Building Conspiracy Charged.
Mr. Untermyer has charged that a conspiracy exists among building material men to exact high prices and he says he is sure it can be readily determined by the city investigators. He also said that money belonging to the people and held in trust by insurance companies are being withheld by insurance companies and that the mortgage market in order that stocks and bonds may be dealt in. This, he declares, is in violation of the law of 1906. It is for the purpose of digging deep into these matters that the Mayor's Committee on Rent Protesting and the Aldermanic Committee on General Welfare decided to have a little investigation on their own.

The city investigators have been planning to start their independent inquiry in a day or two. It is understood that if Mr. Moss has a chance to ask insurance men called by the Lockwood committee all the questions which Mr. Untermyer, Mr. Hirsch and others thought ought to ask it will largely contribute to a reduction of the expense account of the city probe.

AMERICAN LEGION'S WEEKLY OUT JULY 4
Service Men's Newspaper Will Foster Patriotism.

The Fourth of July will mark the first appearance of the American Legion Weekly, the official publication of the American Legion. The paper's object will be to organize the legion into a national, non-partisan, non-political association of veterans of the European war, "to foster and perpetuate 100 per cent Americanism," and "to safeguard the benefits of justice, freedom and democracy for which they fought."

The national convention of the legion will be held in Minneapolis on November 10, 11 and 12, when a permanent organization will be effected. It is anticipated that 1,000,000 names will be on the roster of the organization by that time.

The new paper will be issued from the headquarters of the national executive committee, 19 West Forty-fourth street. The publication committee consists of George W. Burtin, New York, chairman; John W. Young, Texas; R. C. Vance, Connecticut; L. Leo Meehan, Utah; Charles D. Kelley, Michigan, and Donald MacGregor, Washington, D. C.

MAN AND WIFE ASSAULTED.
Couple Beaten Up Following Quarrel With Strangers.

Robert Morrell and his wife, Anna, both 32, became involved in an argument, according to the police, with two men at a party given at the Winthrop street club early yesterday morning. The strangers attacked the couple with their fists. As a result, Mrs. Morrell was taken to the Kings County Hospital suffering from lacerations of the scalp and face and a possible fracture of the skull. Morrell sustained lacerations of the right ear and a fracture of the jaw.

He is an orderly at the Brooklyn State Hospital for the Insane, on Clarkson street near Albany avenue, Flatbush, and also lives there. His wife is an orderly at the Kingston Avenue Hospital, Kingston avenue and Fenimore street.

HOUSING INQUIRY MERGER IS SOUGHT

Mayor's Committee Asks Right to Question Legislative Witnesses.

MONEY MEN TO TESTIFY

Insurance and Building Material Representatives Will Be Examined.

The Lockwood Legislative Committee on Housing has been asked by the Mayor's Committee on Rent Protesting to permit the joint committee of the Mayor's Committee and the Aldermanic Committee on General Welfare through counsel to cross-examine officers of life insurance companies and building material supply men who testify before the legislative committee.

The Lockwood committee has subpoenaed representatives of insurance companies and savings banks to appear before it at the resumption of its inquiry to-day. These witnesses include Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and E. W. F. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company.

The request was granted, Frank Moss, who is to conduct examinations in the investigation suggested by Samuel Untermyer, will get to work on once Senator Charles C. Lockwood, chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee, went out of town for the week-end and will not get back until the morning of the 11th. Therefore, nobody was able to find out just exactly how he felt about it.

No Objection to Questioning.
The proposition was put up to the Mayor's Committee by vice-chairman of the Lockwood committee, at his home in Lawrence, L. I., and he said he had no doubt the plan would have the approval of the Mayor's Committee.

"We wish the fullest possible inquiry," Mr. McWhinney said. "If I have anything to say about it, any of the Mayor's Committee, wishes to have asked, certainly will be asked of our witnesses by his counsel."

Mr. McWhinney expressed the hope that such cross-examination would be reasonably brief, as the legislative committee desires to take up the too questions as possible. The committee was appointed to investigate the conditions as well as the housing problem.

In a recent letter to Samuel Untermyer, Chairman Lockwood, informed of the appearance to-day before the Joint Legislative Committee of the Mayor's Committee, Mr. Peabody and Mr. Kingsley and added:

"You are invited to these meetings and all subsequent ones, and if you are unable to attend, we would be glad to have you send a representative or you cannot do that, a list of questions which you desire put to these witnesses."

Much interest will be attached to the injection of the city investigators into the State inquiry for the reason that the Lockwood Committee is a Republican body—created by a Republican Legislature and composed of more Republicans than Democratic Senators and Assemblymen—whereas the influences in and about the Mayor's and the Aldermanic committees are exclusively Democratic. And they do say that each group of investigators is more than slightly suspicious that the other fellows would stop to play politics if they get half a chance.

Building Conspiracy Charged.
Mr. Untermyer has charged that a conspiracy exists among building material men to exact high prices and he says he is sure it can be readily determined by the city investigators. He also said that money belonging to the people and held in trust by insurance companies are being withheld by insurance companies and that the mortgage market in order that stocks and bonds may be dealt in. This, he declares, is in violation of the law of 1906. It is for the purpose of digging deep into these matters that the Mayor's Committee on Rent Protesting and the Aldermanic Committee on General Welfare decided to have a little investigation on their own.

The city investigators have been planning to start their independent inquiry in a day or two. It is understood that if Mr. Moss has a chance to ask insurance men called by the Lockwood committee all the questions which Mr. Untermyer, Mr. Hirsch and others thought ought to ask it will largely contribute to a reduction of the expense account of the city probe.

AMERICAN LEGION'S WEEKLY OUT JULY 4
Service Men's Newspaper Will Foster Patriotism.

The Fourth of July will mark the first appearance of the American Legion Weekly, the official publication of the American Legion. The paper's object will be to organize the legion into a national, non-partisan, non-political association of veterans of the European war, "to foster and perpetuate 100 per cent Americanism," and "to safeguard the benefits of justice, freedom and democracy for which they fought."

The national convention of the legion will be held in Minneapolis on November 10, 11 and 12, when a permanent organization will be effected. It is anticipated that 1,000,000 names will be on the roster of the organization by that time.

The new paper will be issued from the headquarters of the national executive committee, 19 West Forty-fourth street. The publication committee consists of George W. Burtin, New York, chairman; John W. Young, Texas; R. C. Vance, Connecticut; L. Leo Meehan, Utah; Charles D. Kelley, Michigan, and Donald MacGregor, Washington, D. C.

MAN AND WIFE ASSAULTED.
Couple Beaten Up Following Quarrel With Strangers.

Robert Morrell and his wife, Anna, both 32, became involved in an argument, according to the police, with two men at a party given at the Winthrop street club early yesterday morning. The strangers attacked the couple with their fists. As a result, Mrs. Morrell was taken to the Kings County Hospital suffering from lacerations of the scalp and face and a possible fracture of the skull. Morrell sustained lacerations of the right ear and a fracture of the jaw.

He is an orderly at the Brooklyn State Hospital for the Insane, on Clarkson street near Albany avenue, Flatbush, and also lives there. His wife is an orderly at the Kingston Avenue Hospital, Kingston avenue and Fenimore street.

WANTS INQUIRY INTO DAYLIGHT SAVING

Marks Urges Investigation Before Law Is Repealed.

Marcus M. Marks, president of the National Daylight Savings Association, yesterday issued a statement advocating an investigation of the benefits of daylight saving before the report of the Interstate Commerce Committee of the House favoring a repeal of the daylight saving law is adopted. Referring to the committee's action in which repeal of the law was recommended by a vote of 11 to 10, Mr. Marks said:

"This action will bring regret to millions of people all over the country and it is hoped that the deliberations of the House will result in a rejection of the majority report and an acceptance of the report of the minority, so that the blessings of daylight saving may be continued."

"The workers of the country, who constitute the great mass of our population, are enthusiastically in favor of the daylight saving plan, and the vice-president of the American Federation of Labor wired me that great industrial discontent would follow the repeal of the law. While it is quite true that certain adjustments of trains will be necessary and should be made to satisfy the owners of some of the farms, it will be well worth while to work out such adjustments in the interest of the great mass of the citizens all the advantages that have accrued from daylight saving."

"Is it not a proper request on our part that the House should present a public report upon which future action is based? In Great Britain the report was very strongly in favor of the plan, and it continues as a permanent blessing."

FINGER PRINTING OF DRUG USERS OPPOSED

Doctors Ask Medical Society to Fight Copeland Plan.

More than 100 indignant physicians, aroused over the proposal of Dr. Royal R. Copeland, Health Commissioner, to amend the city sanitary code by providing for the finger printing of every patient for whom drugs are prescribed, have signed a call for a special meeting of the Medical Society of the County of New York. The Health Commissioner's plan is a "radical and serious extension of the powers of the Department of Health," the call says, and special objection is found in an attempt to disturb the hitherto confidential relations between physicians and their patients.

Among the signers are Drs. Robert Abbe, Abraham Jacob, Walter B. James, Charles Elmer, John Thompson, John D. Cavin, Frederick Tilney, William S. Gotthelf and E. W. Gelphey. The signers complain that they have been ignored and the decision of the drug question has been confined to the political administration of the city. The question ought not to be decided, they say, without exhaustive medical consideration.

ARCHBISHOP ASKS FAITH IN GOVERNOR

Whole Family Attends Mass at St. James's.

Gov. Smith, his family and military staff, with Attorney-General Newton, attended services in St. James's Church, at which Archbishop Hayes presided. The church had been closed for some time for redecoration. Archbishop Hayes spoke briefly at the close of the service, referring to the work of the Rev. Vincent J. Mulvey, rector, and Gov. Smith's long interest in the church of his home parish. He then addressed the Governor directly.

"May the most blessed of the mass this morning put trust in you in the hearts of the people of this State," he said, "and may it give you strength, wisdom and counsel to enable you to be the best Governor of the State of New York ever had. May it aid you through these critical days in carrying out your duties and may it aid you in keeping America for America, and may it so-called philosophy some of our public officials are trying to plan for our land."

In the Governor's party were Justice William J. Kelly, Magistrate Thomas J. Nolan, John E. Gilchrist, Commissioner of Licenses, Thomas J. Foley and John P. Abner, rector of St. James's Church, who preached the sermon, giving a historical review of the church since its establishment in 1827 by Father Varela. The service was held by the Rev. William Livingston of St. Gabriel's Church, in East Thirtieth street.

OBJECTS IN VAIN TO BLACKWELL'S ISLAND

Mary Doyle Sent Up for Six Months Despite Protests.

Mary Doyle, seventeen times convicted for being drunk, was in Essex Market court again yesterday, and after her eighteenth conviction announced she had a complaint to make. Mary said she had been in and out of Blackwell's Island so much that she was sick of the place and wanted to be released. The last time she was there, which was only three weeks ago, it had been burned down, Mary said, that the institution was a very low place for a lady. She described it to Magistrate Cobb as a "bum's hotel."

"Who wants to go to a place like that?" she asked. "I am not very strong, your Honor, and I don't know I can possibly put up with what I have to see going on right under my very nose in that place. It don't agree with me, your Honor."

Magistrate Cobb glanced at the defendant and remarked that Mary didn't appear to be in ill health. He thought rather that her latest stay on the island had done her good and estimated that another six months would be an extraordinary good vacation for her. "And while you are away from the city haunts, Mary," the Magistrate concluded, "the funeral of your friend, John Barlow, will be over and done. You really ought to be happy to be at a place like this."

NEWARK LAWYER KILLED.

Dies of Injuries Sustained in Street Fight.

Michael J. McArdle, a lawyer, of 204 Fairmount avenue, Newark, died of injuries sustained in a fight at City Hospital. He was knocked down in a fight at Broad and Bank streets in that city early Saturday morning.

John C. Cullen of East Orange told the police he struck McArdle after the latter had struck him in the abdomen. Cullen said he met McArdle, who had been drinking and was excusing him home when the trouble started.

The police are looking for a sailor who was with Cullen. McArdle's open face gold watch, gold stickpin and gold tie clasp are missing.

JOHN WANAMAKER

JOHN WANAMAKER Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co. Broadway at Ninth, New York. Store Hours, 9 to 5:30.

Good morning! This is June 9! The weather to-day will probably be unsettled.

No Sir! He Only Said It—

but his word is as good as any bond. "What makes you so certain?" So one New York man said to another New York man this morning. "For thirty years I have known that man; he is as open as they make them and out and out upright, and his word goes without a shadow of doubt with everybody who knows him."

Upon such a foundation any one can build up a city, a bank, a corporation and any kind of an undertaking requiring sincerity and probity as well as intelligence. With such a character (not a talent from birth) acquired from principles forming the basis of life, attained by all our young men and women, what a country America would be, what a power of wealth it would be in every State and all its cities.

Such a reputation would be worth more than a million to the young people leaving the colleges to take up their life work. Money is not everything to a business man.

[Signed] John Wanamaker June 9, 1919.

Boy scout rally

in the Auditorium Today at 2:30 Rally for the BOY SCOUT Association Membership Campaign proclaimed by President Wilson. Boy Scout demonstration. Address by Mr. Grossbeck, Scout Commissioner. Songs and dances by Dorothy Findlay and Dorothy Walsh. The Great Organ. A Boy Scout film strip—"The Knights of the Square Table." First Gallery, New Building.

Very good looking new blouses $5.75

Quite tailored and exceptionally well made of white striped domette.

The good-fitting rolling collar is the sort that is decidedly becoming. The cuffs are made to set exactly right. Entre deux gives a smart finish to the shirt front.

All the details carefully worked out. Third floor, Old Building.

Practical new house dresses

Special ones at $2.95 Well made, attractive dresses of checked and striped gingham, some with white pique collars; others with colored chambray collars.

Attention is given to having full roomy sleeves, and skirts that are not too skimpy for working. Unusually good for the price.

At $3.75 —is a practical pretty striped gingham. Neat and trim looking. Third floor, Old Building.

Couch hammocks

Wanamaker-Special, $30.50 Complete outfit of hammock, stand and canopy. Strong duck in khaki, gray or green. Cotton top mattress, with roll edge. Adjustable wind shield of extra depth which can be made into a comfortable back-rest. Magazine pockets.

For the lawn Lawn swings, $7 to $10.75. Enamelled iron tables, $21; chairs to match, $2.75 each. Hammock chairs of canvas, with adjustable frame and foot rest, $4.50.

"Adirondack" reclining chairs, without getting out of the chair, $8, with swivel to match, $10.75. Gliding settee, $17, with canopy, $29. Third Gallery, New Building.

$15,000 of lace bed-sets today, for $11,250

We bought them at about a quarter less—not an every-day purchase. And you may have your share of the saving today. Apart from the saving, you will really wish to see the bed-sets. They are exquisite. Some are from abroad.

$3.50 to $65 for one set

There is the simple voile set at $3.50. This set you may elaborate as you wish, with your own lace. There are sets of white dotted marquisette at $7.75; combinations of machine-made lace and motifs, $8.50 and up; some pretty hand-made Marie Antoinette sets, $21 to $28; And very fine hand-made flannel and Cluny sets at $30 to $55.

The net in every set is of good, serviceable quality. Any sets bought to be sent as a wedding gift will be daintily boxed. Fourth Gallery, New Building.

Printed summer voiles

300 sample pieces—38c yd.

Sold in our own stock at 45c and 50c—the 15 and 18-yard lengths—two to three dress patterns—left from the general trade cuttings. More than 100 styles. Cool-looking prints on light and colored grounds. Can't be reproduced now at these prices, so great has been the advance in cotton yarns. Main Aisle, Old Building.

Women's silk dresses

Two different types and yet each is equally necessary in every woman's Summer wardrobe—

Today at $25

White crepe de chine dresses in a smart simple model which might readily be called the indispensable frock for country and seashore wear.

It is fashioned with straight, narrow skirt and long Russian blouse. Not a bit of trimming, except cluster of wee tucks around top of hem on blouse, around wrists of sleeves, and on center of narrow belt. This sort of dress ladders beautifully.

Taffeta frocks

—fashioned in a good-looking yet conservative model appropriate for shopping in town or for traveling. As the bodice is almost entirely of Georgette crepe it is obviously a cool style of dress. Sizes 34 to 44 in these dresses. Second floor, Old Building.

417 of the sweetest, prettiest, rarest birds

have just arrived in the Bird Store

The dear little things have traveled all the way from Sidney, Australia. And before they got to Sidney they traveled from the interior of the country. So, you see, they are hardy—as well as pretty.

No others like them—here —except in Zoological parks

And in private houses. None for sale so far as we know, except this wonderful new collection of 417—

100 red-faced Lady Gould finches.....$16 pr.
75 black-faced Lady Gould finches..... 15 pr.
50 mask finches..... 10 pr.
24 owl finches..... 11 pr.
30 blood finches (very rare)..... 15 pr.
30 yellow rump finches..... 15 pr.
24 pectorate finches..... 16 pr.
50 star finches..... 15 pr.
24 zebra finches..... 4 pr.
6 diamond doves..... 12 pr.
4 plume pigeons (rare)..... 50 pr.

In the Bird Store, Down-Stairs Store, New Building.

Slip covers

Of cotton damask, imitation Belgian linen, cretonnes and chintzes, change the character of the room from a war wintry atmosphere into a cool restful summer one.

There is a tendency in some of the newest cretonne designs to be patterned after tapestries. Slip-covers delivered two weeks after ordered. An extensive collection of designs to select from. Prices vary according to amount of labor. We aim to give the best workmanship for the least possible cost. Cretonnes, 45c a yard to $6.75. Linenized and cotton damask, 70c a yard to $1.10 a yard. Fourth Gallery, New Building.

The frivolity shop

Au Quatrieme

We don't like to use the vague and certainly over-worked word "smock" to describe the little linen sports blouses the Frivolity Shop has designed and made—chemise blouse is better, but not quite right either. This new blouse is really a typically French chemise blouse converted into a sports blouse for a smart American woman.

In linen in gray color with a highly becoming scalloped neck, bound with contrasting color, $15. An organdie, too, in delicious cool-looking tints, with a grille made of very fine beads, in contrasting color, $20. Fourth floor, Old Building.

The charm of an Oriental lamp

The Oriental Shop has just brought from Japan a collection of bronze and cloisonné vases from which to evolve wonderfully effective lamps.

These vases are in a variety of interesting shapes, besides those with the simple flowing lines of dignity. The cloisonné enamel is in really remarkable color, in soft blues and yellows and delightful shades of Oriental greens and reds.

At very moderate prices such as $18.50, $25, $27.50 and $30. Bronzes reproduced from the old Ming vases

That wonderful old ver de gris patina that characterized the old Ming bronzes is cleverly reproduced in modern Chinese bronze vases and jardinières, wrought with intricate patterns in relief; $200 for large vase; $50 for jardinières.

Oriental Shop, Second Gallery, New Building.

Vudor porch screens

Those ever-so-attractive screens of strips of linwood in soft greens, and browns, painted with waterproof color. They keep your porch an intimate charming outdoor room, but are made so that they ventilate at the top and don't cause that unpleasant closed-in feeling that so many porch screens have.

They're a decided addition to your country house. Price list—

4 x 7 ft. 6.....$3.15
5 x 7 ft. 6..... 4.75
6 x 7 ft. 6..... 5.65
7 x 7 ft. 6..... 7.00
8 x 7 ft. 6..... 7.50
9 x 7 ft. 6..... 9.25
10 x 7 ft. 6..... 10.25
12 x 7 ft. 6..... 12.50
8 x 9 ft. 6..... 12.50
10 x 9 ft. 6..... 13.50
12 x 9 ft. 6..... 16.75

Oriental Shop, Second Gallery, New Building.

Gray enamel settee of reed with cretonne seat and pad back, $43.75. Chair to match, $18.50. Brown stain rocker of reed with tapestry cushion seat and back, at $26.50. Brown stain rocker of reed with cretonne cushion seat and back, $29.

11-piece suite of reed in verdi green, silk cushion seats, $406.50. Fernery of reed in gray and blue enamel, $48.

Arm chair in decorated parchment of reed with cretonne cushion seat, $100.50. Arm chair in two-tone blue enamel of reed with cretonne cushion seat, $66.50.